

JOINING LEAP

+ “Art and the happiness it can give us should be made for the public. But this doesn't come for free, and that's where organizations like LEAP come in: a model that should be widely adopted. People are joined in a collective to support exhibitions at regular intervals. In this way, they bring artists and their art to the public and to visitors and interested people. It sounds modest, but it is an important, sustainable endeavor! More more more of this please!”

Daniel Baumann, Director Kunsthalle Zurich

We would love to welcome you to our circle of art enthusiasts. Your patronage supports museums in the realization of exhibition programs, the acquisition of artworks, and artistic productions. Your commitment to LEAP allows you to enjoy exclusive benefits.

PATRONAGE BENEFITS

Exclusive Events:

Exhibition openings, artist talks, studio visits, meetings with museum directors, and other events offer exclusive experiences and connect patrons, sponsors, and art world professionals. (Kindly note that costs for events, such as travel expenses, entrance tickets, etc. are usually chargeable).

Art Trips:

We offer exclusive trips to selected art destinations. These are available to LEAP patrons and honorary patrons only. The number of participants is limited so groups remain small and confined. For the year 2022, we are planning trips to Venice — as part of the Venice Biennale — and to Japan, more specifically Tokyo, Kyoto & Naoshima. (Kindly note that costs for travel are chargeable).

Artist Editions:

In collaboration with selected artists, limited editions are commissioned by LEAP. In 2022, we are thrilled to cooperate with Julian Charrière (b. 1987, French-Swiss) for an edition of either sculptural works and / or photography. Collaborations with other renowned artists are under way. These works will be presented in the course of 2022.

Benefit Auctions:

Live auctions of high-ranking contemporary artworks are held regularly in cooperation with Phillips Auctioneers. Our partner Phillips considers it a matter of course not to charge a premium for charity auctions held jointly with LEAP. In this respect, Philipps actively participates in our idea of philanthropy.

Donation Receipts:

Your contribution is considered a donation and therefore qualifies as a fully deductible special expense for income tax purposes.

LEAP allocates 100% of its patronage funds to artistic projects. All values raised, such as private donations or returns from artist editions, are donated to public institutions. The costs incurred by the economic operation of LEAP as a 'Non-Commercial Society' are covered exclusively by sponsorship.

To our corporate sponsors, we offer the opportunity to select two Honorary Patrons who may join our circle of patrons. Honorary patrons enjoy the same benefits as 'regular patrons'. They may participate in all LEAP events and trips, taking the chance to get to know our "society" in a small and exclusive setting.
